Anniversaries

NEW ADULT STUDY STARTED!

We have started a study titled “Unafraid, Living with Courage and Hope in Uncertain Times,” by Adam Hamilton. The study will run over 4 weeks from 11 AM -Noon on Sunday mornings in the Fireside room.

As the senior pastor of a large, diverse church in America’s heartland, Adam Hamilton has seen the cost of fear up close. When he surveyed his congregation on how fear affects them, 2,400 people responded—and what they said was eye-opening. Eighty percent admitted to living with moderate or significant levels of fear.

Unafraid is Hamilton’s insightful and impassioned response. Drawing on recent research, inspiring real-life examples, and fresh biblical insight, Hamilton uses a mixture of facts and faith to help readers understand and counter fears related to such outside perils as death and illness, as well as the everyday anxieties all of us encounter.

The study will use a combined approach of DVD clips/ group process and the book with the same name. Reading the book alongside the study is recommended, but not required. We have a few on order, or you may order it here: <https://www.cokesbury.com/9780593674574->

BOOK GROUP OPPORTUNITY

A group of us started reading books by Black authors during the pandemic. During the summer we took a break, but we plan to meet by Zoom on Tues, Oct 8 at 7pm to discuss where this group will go next. We could choose other minority authors & subjects to read, meet at locations other than church, find a different time or day.

We’d love for you to join our conversations. If you’re interested, please join us to help decide.

There is enough for everyone!

FAITH & EVERYDAY DEVOTIONS OCTOBER 2024

My mother was my Sunday school superintendent when I was growing up. I grew up believing my mom had a lifetime of faith that she passed on to me and my siblings. It wasn't until after her death that my father told me that it was his influence that led my mom to faith and being baptized after they were married. I had no idea. The rich seeds of faith that my father had been given as a child were handed to my mother who handed that love of Jesus to us. My mother grew in faith along with her children.

In The Message translation, we read this paraphrase of 2 Timothy 1:5-7 "That precious memory triggers another: your honest faith—and what a rich faith it is, handed down from your grandmother Lois to your mother Eunice, and now to you! And the special gift of ministry you received when I laid hands on you and prayed—keep that ablaze! God doesn't want us to be shy with his gifts, but bold and loving and sensible." These passages have a rich message of passing on the faith. It is a call to be generous with encouragement and prayer for those who are in our family, in the family we have chosen, and for those we mentor. I believe this to be a message to us today and every day. Be bold with the gifts God has given us. Be loving with the gifts God has given us. Be sensible with the gifts God has given us. Go...keep that ablaze.
